A Message from John Talley

Holy Week is upon us! From Palm Sunday (this Sunday) through Easter the Christian world remembers and celebrates the events that changed the world and eternity. Events that are the full reason that First Baptist Church of Texas City exists, As our Vision Statement expresses... to pursue Christ First in life, love and actions.

Our Holy Week Events include:

- 4/14 Palm Sunday Worship (this Sunday)
- 4/17 Regular Wednesday Evening Schedule
- 4/18 Maundy Thursday "Communion" Service @ 6:30pm
- 4/19 Good Friday "Cross" Service @ 6:30pm
- 4/21 Easter Sunday - TWO Services 8:45am & 10:45am Family Egg Hunt @ 10:00am

We have been praying, planning and working in preparation for our Easter events. You are encouraged to join in by preparing yourself and your church for the Resurrection Celebration Easter Sunday! How?

- 1) Review/Discover the events from Triumphal Entry to Resurrection:
 - a. Matthew 26 & 27, Mark 11-16, Luke 19-24, John 12-20
 - b. Check out Devotions in YouVersion (or other Bible other apps)
 - c. RightNow Media has many offerings for adults and kids
 - d. Follow (and listen) to the FBCTC Worship Playlist in Spotify
- 2) Pray... for yourself, family, church and our guests.
- 3) Invite! Talk to neighbors, co-workers, friends and more about coming Easter Sunday as well as the other Holy Week events. The "Easter Invite" videos we are showing are for inspiration! Don't be "that guy!" The invite cards are a super easy way to invite guests - give them away!
- 4) Help us prepare the "house" for guests. This Saturday Workday @ 9:00am.
- 5) Easter Sunday - consider attending the 8:45am service! If someone beats you to your regular seat, welcome them and then find another one! Be helpful and welcoming to all. Help out at the Family Egg Hunt.

Easter is a highlight of the year! Prepare, invite, remember and celebrate!
