FINISHING THE TASK

A stewardship ministry of FBCTC to finish the task of building out the first floor of our facility.

BUILDING UPDATE

Steel studs that define the walls in the children's area are mostly in place. The rooms are designed with ample space for fun-loving children and will provide a great place for our children to learn about their savior. Electricians will move into this area next week. Construction of the stage in the worship area is about to begin. Underground plumbing in the youth area is near complete. Progress is visible in all areas.

Be strong and finish the task! Zechariah 8:9

A Message from Dennis Johns

During our "40 Days of Prayer" study this week I was reminded of the overwhelming magnitude of the God we serve. I know God is big, and I know He is all powerful, and I know He loves me beyond my understanding. All this is true but why do I not let Him have the room in my thoughts, or my finances, or my driving, or my anxiety, or my... (you fill in the blank). Rick Warren said, "The bigger God is the smaller your problems are going to appear." I don't believe this is said to understate our issues, but rather to assist in seeing the importance of understanding who God is rather than what He has done. I love children's songs, they seem to make simple solid statements that have lasting impact;

"My God is so big, so strong and so mighty
There's nothing my God cannot do. (clap, clap)
My God is so big, so strong and so mighty
There's nothing my God cannot do. (clap, clap)
The mountains are His, the rivers are His
The stars are His handiwork too.
My God is so big, so strong and so mighty
There's nothing my God cannot do. (clap, clap)"

There really is nothing my God cannot do, but when I choose to focus on the mountain of problems that loom ahead, I lose sight of how big, strong, and mighty He really is.

What lies ahead for you? Is there room for a big God? What a mighty God we serve!

2 Chronicles 20:6 (NIV)

6 "Lord, the God of our ancestors, are you not the God who is in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no one can withstand you."
